

LEGAL STUDIES

Unit 1 The Presumption of Innocence

COURSE OUTLINE:

In this unit, students develop an understanding of legal foundations, such as the different types and sources of law, the characteristics of an effective law, and an overview of parliament and the courts. Students are introduced to and apply the principles of justice. They investigate key concepts of criminal law and apply these to actual and/or hypothetical scenarios to determine whether an accused may be found guilty of a crime. In doing this, students develop an appreciation of the manner in which legal principles and information are used in making reasoned judgments and conclusions about the culpability of an accused. Students also develop an appreciation of how a criminal case is determined, and the types and purposes of sanctions. Students apply their understanding of how criminal cases are resolved and the effectiveness of sanctions through consideration of recent criminal cases from the past four years.

AREAS OF STUDY:

- Legal foundations
- Proving guilt
- Sanctions

OUTCOMES:

On completion of this unit, students should be able to:

1. Describe the main sources and types of law and evaluate the effectiveness of laws.
2. Explain the purposes and key concepts of criminal law, and use legal reasoning to argue the criminal culpability of an accused based on actual and/or hypothetical scenarios.
3. Explain the key concepts in the determination of a criminal case, discuss the principles of justice in relation to experiences of the criminal justice system, and discuss the ability of sanctions to achieve their purpose.

ASSESSMENT:

See Unit 2

Unit 2 Rights and Wrongs

COURSE OUTLINE:

In this unit, students investigate key concepts of civil law and apply these to actual and/or hypothetical scenarios to determine whether a party is liable in a civil dispute. Students explore different areas of civil law, and the methods and institutions that may be used to resolve a civil dispute and provide remedies. They apply knowledge through an investigation of civil cases from the past four years. Students also develop an understanding of how human rights are protected in Australia and possible reforms to the protection of rights, and investigate a contemporary human rights issue in Australia, with a specific focus on one case study.

AREAS OF STUDY:

- Civil liability
- Remedies
- Human rights

OUTCOMES:

On completion of this unit, students should be able to:

1. Explain the purposes and key concepts of civil law, and apply legal reasoning to argue the liability of a party in civil law based on actual and/or hypothetical scenarios
2. Explain the key concepts in the resolution of a civil dispute, discuss the principles of justice in relation to experiences of the civil justice system, and discuss the ability of remedies to achieve their purposes.
2. Explain one contemporary human rights issue in Australia, and evaluate the ways in which rights are protected in Australia.

ASSESSMENT:

S or N based on the demonstrated achievement of the outcomes specified above.
