

VCE English

at the senior campus

English matters!

So, the awkward thing is... you have to do English!

I don't say so - the government says so -_(ツ)_/ -

MUST do one of these

Prerequisite (compulsory)
English options:

- English
- English VM

'Because you love it'
additional English:

- English Literature

CAN do this as well

What's the difference?

VCE English is taught over 4 Units on a very organized timeline – work has to be completed on time, assessments count and you will need to qualify to progress.

VCE English

Same books / areas of study

Standard level of support

VCE VM Literacy

Less books
Vocational activities

Less contact hours

English Literature

Different books /
more reading and writing

Consider if you feel reading and writing is a strength

What's English Literature about?

- Literature helps you to understand:
 - the different ways texts are constructed and how authors create meaning with language & structure.
 - the historical and social context of the author, and how it can affect the texts they create.
- We read a LOT more books in Literature, and it is expected that you read over the holidays and in your own time.
- Did you do it in Year 10 as this would help you get the foundation you need?

Results matter Now

Unlike what you may have been used to, your results do matter —

IMPORTANT

VCE English, Vocational Major Literacy and English Literature require that you satisfy the outcomes that is achieve a Satisfactory result —

To progress to Year 12 you must achieve a satisfactory outcome at Year 11
